

Sheer Insert

By: burdastyle

<http://www.burdastyle.com/techniques/sheer-insert>

Turn any old tank into a new vision with a sexy sheer insert!

Step 1 — Cut Tulle

Cut a triangle out of the tulle fabric. Approx. 30 cm (12 ins) long, from edge to point. If you don't have a dress form, try top on and carefully pin tulle triangle in place. Ask a friend to help.

Step 2 — Sew Tulle

Sew the tulle triangle onto the tank with a 3mm top stitch. Pivot at the triangle point.

Step 3 — Cut Away

Cut away the tank fabric behind the tulle.

Step 4 — Sheer Dress

Step 3 — Cut Away

Jersey dress. Lingerie tulle, approx. 25 x 60 cm (10 x 24 ins). Sewing thread. Dress form. Instructions: See also steps 1-3 of tutorial. The lower edge of the tulle triangle is approx. 20 cm (8 ins) wide. It is approx. 55 cm (22 ins) long, to the point. Shoulder yokes measure approx. 13 cm (5 1/4 ins) long, from the shoulder seam down. The width is the distance between the neck edge and sleeve attachment seam. If you don't have a dress form, try the top on and carefully pin the tulle triangle in place. Ask a friend to help.

BurdaStyle

Sheer Insert